

Description:Pattern Name: Log CabinKnown as: Barn Raising SettingSize: 72 1/2 x 82 1/2Date Made: CA 1870Documented ☐ Inferred ☒ Method: from fabricMaker: Unknown - possibly WendieDocumented ☐ Inferred ☒ Method: from ownerPredominant Colors: Brown, black, tan, green, purple, redFabric: Wool, silk, linen, rayonBacking: 100% cotton floral print on purpleBatting/Fill: None or very thinTechniques: Handpieced and quilted

Description: 9 1/2" blocks set 7x6 side by side in barn raising. All surrounded by a 7 1/2-8" wide border of blocks in basketweave 10 on each side, 9 on ends

Visual Impact: High - strong contrastFinishing: Back brought to front for 1/4" - hand blind stitchedQuilting Designs: in the ditchWorkmanship:Construction: Excellent overall, very even stitch, strong, seams lay very flat, strong and durableQuilting: Excellent overall, moderate amount,Condition/Restoration: Excellent, CleanProvenance: _____Notations: Purchased in about 1990 in Evanston or ElmhurstDocumentation:Resources: Values at auctions, estate sales, antiques marketsCurrent Market Condition: ModerateData Approach: Cost to purchase or replacement of like-kindDefinition of Value: Replacement - usedAppraised Value: $7,800⁰⁰Seven thousand 800 DollarsAppraised by: Chris MolineDate: 6/23/07Fee: $40