A Broker cannot

- Register himself or herself as a prospect to buy.
- Register a member of his/her immediate family.
- Be registered by another Broker/Agent.
- Be, in any way, a party to the purchase.

An Affidavit is required as proof that the Broker/Agent is serving only as Broker/Agent and not as a principal. Nothing, however, shall preclude several agents from one office in participating with several bidders. Extreme caution should be exercised not to share confidential bidder information.

If the prospect was generated through the efforts and marketing campaign of Ewald Auctions, and has had conversation(s) with any employee of Ewald Auctions regarding the subject property prior to signed registration, then NO FEE will be paid to the referring Broker. Subsequent to registration, the prospect can call directly to Ewald Auctions as frequently as desired without affecting the status of said registration.

All Broker Participation Fees shall be due and owed, and subsequently paid, upon a successful closing on the property.
